SUNDAY OF THE FATHERS OF THE SIX ECUMENICAL COUNCILS

So that Christians everywhere would always be taught the same thing and believe the whole truth without picking and choosing what they like or adding faddist interpretations the councils were called as a protection and confirmation of what the Church had always held and believed.

Led by the Holy Spirit, the fathers at the six ecumenical councils sought not their own human reasoning when considering clarification of teaching. Prayerfully, seeking the Holy Spirit's guidance, they considered first what had always been taught and in every place using the scripture and the tradition coming down from the apostles as a guide. They did not seek their own will or to devise anything totally new.

This celebrating of the holy fathers at the six ecumenical councils is a tribute that the Holy Spirit continues to overshadow and dwell in our church. The fathers gathered together did not seek or serve their own will, but it is the Holy Spirit that guides and protects our church.

We have truly been blessed with good friends and good neighbors.

A big THANK YOU to Jim Balog for helping to cut our grass. Not only did he work, but he also purchased a new self-propelled lawnmower for our parish.

This past weekend the Calvary Church in Irwin included us in their community project, "Big Serve". The special project is to help beautify our local community. They weeded, power washed, and helped around the rectory.

May God Bless all who worked so hard on behalf of our parish this past weekend.

Please remember in your prayers Anna Prodan. She recently fell and broke her hip. Surgery will be scheduled in the near future. May God Bless her and help her through this difficult time.
