ASCENSION OF OUR LORD

THURSDAY - MAY 14

Holy Day of Obligation Divine Liturgy & Anointing - 6:30 PM

During the Ascension, we celebrate the fact that Christ has ascended to heaven and has taken all of us with him, and as members of his faithful it is our duty to spread this Good News to the end of the earth. For the ascension of Jesus is not the end of his mission; rather, the ascension of Jesus is his entrusting of that mission to all of us. Let us, together with the whole Church, pray for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us (Pentecost) so that we might proclaim the death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord to all the earth.

SUNDAY OF THE MAN BORN BLIND

The sixth Sunday after Pascha (Easter) commemorates Christ's miraculous healing of a man born blind , by applying clay made from spit to the man's eyes. The healing signifies Christ as the "Light of the World," moving the man from physical and spiritual darkness to enlightenment. The Pharisees' refusal to accept the miracle highlights their spiritual blindness, while the man's faith represents the true "sight" of recognizing Jesus as the Son of God.
